The members of the New York State Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Health and Human Services Network for helping to conceptualize the report and identifying the families to be interviewed.

Two Network members with amazing tenacity and unfailing commitment to this report: Ellen Ensig-Brodsky for her ability to synthesize vast amounts of information into an intelligent and thoughtful preface to the report. And Laura Newman for her ability to edit the interviews and organize the report into a coherent document. Laura serves as the Westchester County Liaison to the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community, and formerly served as Executive Director of The LOFT

Thanks are also extended to the following Pride Agenda and Foundation staff: Foundation Program Director Sheila Healy for coordinating the production of this report, conducting interviews and writing the Research, Polls and Surveys section; Legislative Counsel Ross Levi, Esq., for writing the section on the Legal Status of Lesbian and Gay Families; and Program Associate Sabrina Shulman for the final production, editing and publishing of the report.

The Foundation extends special thanks to those LGBT New Yorkers whose interviews are contained in this report. The stories of their lives and the lives of their families made it all worthwhile.
